Example of teacher's self-evaluation

1. Was my knowledge of the subject matter sufficient?
2. Was the lesson interesting, and the content useful?
3. Did I adjust the methods to the particular issue and class?
4. Did I use the students' knowledge to introduce the new ideas?
5. Was the lesson logically planned and was it conducted according to it?
6. Had I prepared appropriate materials and educational tools?
7. Did I make it possible for the students to work individually?
8. Were the students interested in the lesson and did they reach the planned objectives?
9. Was I enthusiastic enough to encourage the students to make some effort?
10. Is my assessment fair, is it based on the current progress or am I only correcting mistakes?
11. Am I able to listen to someone else's opinion?

EXTERNAL SCHOOL EVALUATION

External school evaluation

1. It is in accordance with the educational law;
2. The Ministry of Education has defined 12 requirements the schools have to meet;
3. Evaluation may concern:
  - all the requirements – so called, overall evaluation
  - some chosen requirements – specific problem evaluation;
4. The evaluation results are published in the report available on the platform www.npseo.pl;
5. The external evaluation of the specific institution is conducted by a team of inspectors;
6. The evaluation lasts for a few weeks and is divided into three stages:
  - Preparation
  - Evaluation at school
  - Summary

Requirements for schools

- 1.The school or institution implements the concept of work aimed at the students' development;
- 2.The educational process is organised in a way supporting learning;
- 3.Students gain knowledge and skills that are specified by the school curriculum;
- 4.Students are active;
- 5.Attitudes are shaped and social norms are respected;
- 6.The school or institution promotes the students' development, taking their individual situation into consideration;
- 7.Teachers take active part in educational processes' planning and implementation;

Requirements for schools

8. The value of education is promoted;
9. Parents are the partners of the school or institution;
10. The school, institution and community resources are used for the mutual development;
11. The analysis of the standardized external exam results (primary school, junior-high school, high school leaving exams and vocational qualification exam) and other internal/external evaluation results are taken into consideration by the school or institution while organising the educational process;
12. The management of the school or institution fosters their development.

Two levels of meeting the requirements

BASIC

- certifies that the educational process is conducted in a proper way, enabling each student to develop and each school/institution to increase their activity;

HIGH

- certifies high effectiveness of the activities undertaken by the school/institution, confirmed by educational results, positive perception by the community and the school/institution's development.
